

XXI. IFHE World Congress 2008
Programme of the Council Committee Young Professionals Network (YPN) Sessions
Status: May 2008

Theme: “Young Professionals Creating the Future of Home Economics”

Day/time/ venue	Name	E-mail address	Topic	Title
Sunday 27 th July 14.00-15.30 Main Station	Stefan WAHLEN, Germany/Finland	stefan.wahlen@ helsinki.fi	Consumer Issues and Family Resource Management	Consumer Issues and Home Economics
Sunday 27 th July 14.00-15.30 Main Station	Wolfgang SCHMIDBERGER, Switzerland	Wolfgang.schmidberger@ zhaw.ch	Home Appliance Technology	Interface Household Technology – Human Beings – Computer Technology
Sunday 27 th July 14.00-15.30 Main Station	Hanna Posti-Ahokas, Finland	hannapostiahokas@ imap.cc	Education, Gender, Disability, Development	Educated girls in Tanzania – socio-cultural interpretations on meaning of formal education
Sunday 27 th July 14.00-15.30 Main Station	Amanda Mc CLOAT, Ireland	amccloat@ stacs.edu.ie	Home Economics Policies in Education and Training	The integration of ICT in the teaching of Home Economics in order to facilitate the Constructivist approach to teaching and learning
Sunday 27 th July 14.00-15.30 Main Station	Raphaela MENNE, Germany	RaphaelaMenne@ web.de	Institutional and Hospitality Management	Talking about experiences and impressions during a work placement in the field of Institutional And Hospitality Management

Theme: “Young Professionals – Ideas, Opportunities, and sustaining the Future”

Day/time/ venue	Name	E-mail address	Title of paper	Chair
Sunday 27 th July 16.00-17.30 Main Station	O'Donoghue, J., Ireland	odonoghuejenny@ gmail.com	An investigation into the factors affecting the take up of Home Economics at Senior Cycle level in Ireland	Christina COLLINS, Australia
Sunday 27 th July 16.00-17.30 Main Station	Pulliainen, O. and A.-L- Rauma, Finland	Outi.pulliainen@joensuu.fi	Training Home Economics students in sustainable education	Christina COLLINS, Australia