

INTRODUCTION

Mary MAGEE, Ph.D.

Dr. Mary Magee is Head of the Home Economics Department at St. Angela's College, Sligo, Ireland. She graduated from Nottingham University, England with a B. Ed (Home Economics) Degree. Her postgraduate studies include a Masters in Education (M. Ed) from the National University of Ireland, Dublin and recently, Mary graduated from NUI with a PhD in Education.

Her doctoral study included research on the personal / professional development of Home Economics teachers titled "Developing Critical Reflection in Teacher Education: Van Manen's model of reflectivity and student teachers experiences of learning to teach". She has been elected Vice President of the European International Federation of Home Economics 2008-2012.

A Home Economics teacher at both second and third level, with teaching experience in both the United Kingdom (UK) and Ireland. Mary is passionate and committed to the promotion and the development of the intrinsic value of Home Economics, both nationally and internationally.

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
FOR HOME ECONOMICS

